

Dear TransUnion,

I am writing to express concern over certain inaccuracies I've found within my credit report. Upon conducting a detailed personal audit, numerous items were discovered to be incorrect.

It is my understanding that according to 15 U.S. Code 1681e(b), the reporting agency must ensure that all reasonable procedures are followed to guarantee the greatest possible accuracy of the information relayed about the consumer.

Further, 15 U.S.C. 1681i(5) outlines the treatment of inaccurate or unverified information. If, after a reinvestigation, an item of disputed information is found to be inaccurate, incomplete, or cannot be verified, the reporting agency must immediately modify or delete the item from the consumer's file.

Therefore, I kindly request your immediate consideration and action on the matter of the following accounts:

Accounts:

1. Undefined - This account is inaccurate and should not be attributed to my credit report. I request an immediate removal of this information from my file.

Given the seriousness and potential impact of this issue, I kindly request your prompt attention. I believe in your commitment to due diligence and trust that this matter will be handled with the utmost regard for accuracy and integrity.

Please remove the above-stated inaccuracies from my record at your earliest convenience.

I look forward to your confirmation that these adjustments have been made.

Thank you for your prompt attention and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Emmanuel Kolawole
