Subject: Request for Immediate Removal of Inaccurate Information

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to challenge several inaccuracies I have recently discovered in my credit report from your bureau. As per the Fair Credit Reporting Act, particularly sections 1681e (b) and 1681i (5), I am formally requesting the removal of this information to maintain the absolute accuracy and integrity of my credit report.

After careful personal investigation into my own credit records, I've found the following accounts to be reported incorrectly:

1. SETF/WOFC - The reported details of this account are inaccurate in my recent credit report.
2. CCB/TYVISA - The details of this account on my credit report are similarly flawed.

I kindly request for these inaccuracies to be rectified promptly in adherence with regulations specified under 15 U.S. Code 1681i

(5). If the claims I've highlighted are found to be incomplete, inaccurate, or unverifiable following your reinvestigation, I ask that they be modified or deleted as appropriate from my file. Furthermore, I request you to swiftly notify the furnisher of the information about the alteration or deletion of the said information from the consumer's file.

I confidently trust that you will address these issues with the urgency and importance that they necessitate. I look forward to a timely resolution of these necessary corrections, encouraging a precise reflection of my creditworthiness.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter and for your assistance in adhering to the Fair Credit Reporting Act stipulations.

Yours Sincerely,

Emmanuel Kolawole
