Dear TransUnion,

I am writing to you as I recently conducted an analysis of my credit report and discovered some discrepancies that need immediate resolution.

As per the 15 U.S. Code 1681e (b) Accuracy of report, it is the responsibility of every consumer reporting agency to ensure that any consumer report prepared is accurate and free from errors. I am reaching out to you on the basis of this Code as it necessitates reliable and lawful procedures for the maximum possible accuracy of the information about the individual to whom the report pertains.

Equally, the 15 U.S. Code 1681i (5) Treatment of inaccurate or unverifiable information gives the consumer the right to dispute any inaccurate, incomplete, or unverified information. If such a dispute arises, you are required to either delete the disputed items, or amend them appropriately based on the findings of the reinvestigation.

The item I am disputing in my credit report is as follows:

Inquiries:

1. SYNCB - 1/30/2024 - I didn't authorize this inquiry. Thus, I kindly request its immediate removal from my credit report.

I do trust that this matter will receive your prompt attention to correct the inaccuracies detected in my credit report.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Emmanuel
