Dear TransUnion,

I wish to draw your attention to discrepancies I found when checking my credit report. As per the provisions of 15 U.S. Code 1681e (b), which states that every instance of preparing a consumer report must follow protocols that ensure the utmost accuracy of the information related to the individual the report covers.

Moreover, according to 15 U.S. Code 1681i (5), during any reinvestigation pursuant to paragraph (1) of any details disputed by a consumer, if an item of the concerned information is found to be incorrect or incomplete or if its verification status remains unavailable, it should be the duty of the consumer reporting agency to promptly either delete the said item from the consumer's file or modify it as suitable on the basis of the reinvestigation.

Given the investigations and the disputed elements, I kindly request the following items to be expunged from my credit report as soon as possible:

Personal Information: N/A

Accounts: N/A

Inquiries:

1. US BANK - Inquiry Date: 05/03/2024.
