[Experian Address]

Dear Experian,

I am writing to you because I recently investigated my credit report and I found several inaccuracies that require immediate correction. I request your attention to this matter in compliance with the provisions specified in sections 15 U.S. Code 1681e (b) and 15 U.S Code 1681i (5) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).

As stated by 15 U.S. Code 1681e (b), it is mandatory for a consumer reporting agency to follow reasonable measures to ensure the maximum possible accuracy of the information related to the individual for whom the report is conducted.

According to 15 U.S. Code 1681i (5), if, after any reinvestigation of any information disputed by a consumer, an item of the information is discovered to be inaccurate or unverifiable, the consumer reporting agency shall:

- i) Promptly delete that item or modify it, as appropriate, based on the reinvestigation results.
- ii) Quickly notify the information's furnisher that the specific piece of information has been modified or deleted from the consumer's file.

With these legal mandates in mind, I kindly ask that you remove the following inaccuracies from my credit report as soon as possible:

Personal Information: None found in the recent report.

Accounts: No discrepancies found in the recently reviewed accounts.

Inquiries: My report did not indicate any inquiries which I dispute.

I am hopeful that you will address this issue promptly. Keeping a clean and accurate credit report is of utmost importance to me.

Thank you for your immediate attention to my request to ensure the credibility and correctness of my documented history.

Sincerely,

Emmanuel Kolawole
